Little Act Of Kindness

Little act of kindness that we do each day, bring us so much happiness as we go along our way!

If we do one little act of kindness every day, we will be blessed in so many ways. Kindness can be shown in small things in our everyday life. By helping a friend in trouble, by cheering someone who is feeling sad, by giving something of ours away to make someone else happy, by helping the poor, by loving homeless animals in countless ways.

Even at home, acts of kindness never go waste. You can help your Mom by putting away your things neatly on a shelf, by asking her if she needs a helping hand, by doing something your parents like. It is so easy not to care what happens to others, but it is only a kind person who reaches out to make others happy.

If you look around carefully, you will surely find plenty of ways in which you can practice little acts of kindness.
